

I am writing to urge you to halt your efforts to change the current TCPA, changes that would create a significant economic and labor-intensive burden for my association: the San Diego County Medical Society. These changes are not acceptable for an association-to-member facsimile. Associations rely on faxes as a prime source for marketing and communicating with members in a cost effective manner. The unintended disadvantages and consequences far outweigh the benefits. Please reconsider your decision to implement these changes.